

Tom Holder Memorial Scholarship Fund

Tom Holder (1935-2005) was a true visionary, the designer of the Arts Council's logo and a consummate artist. His work ranged from the complex abstract paintings to light-hearted satirical drawings on the chalkboard at Harry's Main Street Grille. The CCAC has established a scholarship fund in his name to enable young artists from our community to enroll in our art programs, regardless of their ability to pay.

I am requesting:

___ full ___ partial scholarship support*

for the following class or activity: _____

*Most scholarships awarded are for partial support.

I realize that this scholarship fund is meant to assist families whose annual household income is under $35,000 per year. Should my child receive a partial scholarship, I understand that I am responsible for paying the remaining balance due by the date stated and I understand that my child's spot will be forfeited should payment not be received by that date. My signature verifies that I meet the stated financial criteria and that I understand all of the above.
