Carroll Arts Center to Screen Documentary Films in January

Film Lovers in Carroll County (FLICC) has chosen four documentary films to be screened at the Carroll Arts Center in January. The works in this series offer insight into issues of personal struggle and fortitude; showing us that real life is much more interesting than fiction. The subjects of these extraordinary films reflect on remarkable goals, astonishing secrets, the delicate balance of nature, and much more.

Friday, January 10

“Free Solo”

2018; 1 h 40 m; PG-13 for brief strong language

This 2019 Academy Award® Winner for Best Documentary Feature is a stunning, intimate, and unflinching portrait of the free soloist climber Alex Honnold, as he prepares to achieve his lifelong dream: climbing the face of the world’s most famous rock ... the 3,000ft El Capitan in Yosemite National Park ... without a rope.

“Honeyland”

2019; 1 hr 27 mins; NR

A sumptuous and ethereal documentary about the last female beekeeper in Europe, who makes her living cultivating honey in the mountains of Macedonia using ancient beekeeping traditions. Tension arises when a rowdy nomadic family arrive and try their hand at beekeeping while disregarding her advice. An epic, visually stunning portrait of the delicate balance between nature and humanity.
