The Baltimore Symphony Orchestra's Music for Maryland Tour Visits Carroll County

The acclaimed Baltimore Symphony Orchestra brings their Music for Maryland tour to Carroll County at Winters Mill High School on Saturday, July 22 at 7:30pm. This free concert is presented by the Carroll County Arts Council.

From suave French dances and Finnish fireworks to German precision and British muscle, this concert shows off the enormous power and range of the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra. Recent masterpieces by the superstar composer Jessie Montgomery and Baltimore's Jonathan Leshnoff add American voices to this majestic world tour and Mozart's Magic Flute supplies a dose of otherworldly wonder. Conducted by the BSO's Assistant Conductor and Artistic Director, Jonathan Rush, the performance also features clarinet solos from Jaewon Kim and Vitor Trindade. This concert is part of the BSO's Music for Maryland tour, a three-year initiative that will see the orchestra perform in all 23 Maryland counties.

This performance is free with no tickets required. Support the BSO and their mission to bring music to Maryland by donating online at BSOmusic.org. Winters Mill High School is located at 560 Gorsuch Road in Westminster, MD. Get more information at CarrollCountyArtsCouncil.org or call 410-848-7272.

About the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra

For over a century, the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra (BSO) has been recognized as one of America's leading orchestras and one of Maryland's most significant cultural institutions. The orchestra is internationally renowned and locally admired for its innovation, performances, recordings, and educational outreach initiatives including OrchKids.

The Baltimore Symphony Orchestra performs annually for more than 275,000 people throughout the State of Maryland. Since 1982, the BSO has performed at the Joseph Meyerhoff Symphony Hall in Baltimore, and since 2005, with the opening of The Music Center at Strathmore in North Bethesda, MD, the BSO became the nation's first orchestra performing its full season of classical and pops concerts in two metropolitan areas. In July 2022, the BSO once again made musical history with its announcement that Jonathon Heyward would succeed Music Director Laureate and OrchKids Founder Marin Alsop as the Orchestra's next Music Director. Maestro Heyward begins his five-year contract in the 2023-24 season.

About the Carroll County Arts Council

The Carroll County Arts Council is located at 91 West Main Street in the magnificently renovated Carroll Arts Center, formerly the Carroll Theatre, in downtown Westminster, MD. The art deco building now houses a 263-seat theatre, galleries, Gift Shop, and classrooms.
