TAIKOZA DRUMMING

In February, members of the Arc of Carroll County and Target communities were treated to a private performance from Taikoza, a Japanese taiko drum troupe! Some audience members even got to go onstage and try drumming themselves. This show was made possible by a BGE Rural Access Grant from Arts for Learning Maryland.

A NOTE FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Hello Peeps!

Exciting things are happening at the Carroll Arts Center as we look forward to spring. Emerging from the latest spike in the ongoing pandemic, patrons are returning to our theater and galleries and students are returning to the stage and classrooms. We are so pleased to see this steady increase in attendance and engagement. I encourage everyone to visit and let the arts nourish your soul!

Our winter season featured a very successful 24th Festival of Wreaths, featuring 102 fanciful contributions. The Eric Byrd Trio delighted audiences with their annual "Charlie Brown Christmas" concert, "Motown and More" packed the theater, and the Sunday Night Big Band Holiday Concert left everyone tapping their feet. January and February saw the return of FLICC's Documentary and Foreign Film series, satisfying our local film lovers. It's been great getting back into the groove of having these beloved annual events. If you haven't come to a show at the Arts Center recently, do join us soon. We have a host of performances coming up from Gaelic Mishap, Kalinka Dance Ensemble, A.J. Croce, and so much more. And of course, I hope to see you at my first PEEPshow!

Our fantastic "Icons of American Animation", in partnership with McDaniel College, has been a great success. McDaniel professor and CCAC Board Member, Robert Lemieux, and our Visual Arts Coordinator, Moriah Tyler, curated an amazing collection that received attention from BmoreArt Magazine, local schools, and even garnered a visit from the National Gallery of Art. Come see it before it closes on March 12. Next up in the Tevis Gallery is "40 X 40 @ 40," an exhibit from the Manhattan Quilters' Guild.

It's been such an eventful start to my tenure at the CCAC and I can't wait to see what else this amazing organization can accomplish!

Arts Matter,
Lynne Griffith

SCHOLARSHIP WINNER Q&A

Meet a past recipient of the Tevis College Arts Scholarship

Jenna Paper-Evers

Westminster High School C'05

College Major: Art History (Pratt Institute)

Current Job: Curatorial Intern (Baltimore Museum of Art)

1. What inspired your love of the arts?

While I always had a passion for making art, it was a high school class in junior year with Ms. Wenderoth at WHS which inspired me to pursue art history. She gave me a book of "Artist Self-Portraits" to look through for inspiration on a project. It was the first time I found the 1799 self-portrait of the British Romanticist J.M.W. Turner. My interest in Turner inspired me to pursue research on him in college. I am currently finishing my PhD with Liverpool John Moores University on the Contemporary Reception of J.M.W. Turner.

2. How does your job now maintain your passion for the arts?

At the Baltimore Museum of Art, I get to maintain proximity to the art world while finishing my degree remotely. Working as a curatorial intern with the contemporary department has been extremely rewarding. While my research is on the 21st century ways in which we display and portray a 19th century artist, this internship allows me to research works by contemporary American artists I am less familiar with. Plus, I'm gaining experience as part of an active team to create engaging exhibitions.

3. What did receiving the CCAC's Tevis Scholarship mean to you?

Receiving the scholarship helped give me the confidence I needed to pursue a challenging degree program at one of the top art schools in the country. It helped me realize that my passion and interest for art history was worthy of pursuing further; that my interest in art wasn't fleeting, but enough to propel me into doctoral research and a career in art history.

The deadline to apply for this year's Tevis College Arts Scholarships is April 16!

ICONS OF AMERICAN ANIMATION

Wrapping up a successful exhibit!

Our partnership with McDaniel College to host "Icons of American Animation" was a tremendous success! We had hundreds of visitors come marvel at these original pieces of animation history, including the collector himself, Mike Glad.

HAPPY TRAILS TO JOANNA!

After over 8 years of service and dedication to the CCAC, we say so long to our Community Engagement Coordinator, JoAnna Crone! From crafting our newsletters, to organizing our volunteer force, to being a Photoshop wiz, JoAnna's helping hands will be missed. Post-CCAC, JoAnna is looking forward to spending many hours in her new art studio!
